'Transforming higher education: how we teach in the digital age'

Working Groups on the Modernisation of Higher Education and Digital Skills and Competences

Produced by the ET 2020 Working Groups
Joint Peer Learning Activity - Wednesday 18 January 2017

'Transforming higher education: how we teach in the digital age'

Meeting location - Corinthia Palace Hotel, Balzan, Malta

DRAFT AGENDA

From 8:30 Registration
9:00-9:30 Welcome by Maltese Presidency
9:30-9:45 Structure of PLA and presentation of responses to country questionnaires, European Commission
9:45—10:00 Introductory tour de table
Participants introduce themselves and outline expectations
10:00-10:30 Modernising teaching and learning, European Competence Framework for Organisations and examples from HE in Ireland, Jim Devine, former President of the Institute of Art Design and Technology Dun Laoghaire
10:30-10:45 Coffee and tea available
10:45-12:30 Government policies and strategies
Caroline Surmann | DE: German Forum for Higher Education in the Digital Age - a best practice stakeholder initiative
Berit Johnson; Jon Lanestedt | NO: Digitalisation and quality in higher education. Examples of national initiatives
Agnieszka Czembrowska | PL: The state of play of digital education in Poland. How do we encourage making full use of state-of-the-art teaching methods?
Danijela Scepanovic; Ugljesa Marjanovic | RS: Digital Competence Framework - The Digital Age Teacher
12:30-13:30 Lunch
13:30-14:15 Learning from cross-border projects
Agnese Rusakova | LV: the EFFECT Project - what’s in on digital learning?
Airina Volungeviciene | EDEN: D-TRANSFORM - Changing Teacher Roles and Challenges They Face. European project approach
14.15 - 16.00 Strategies from Higher education institutions
Sandra Kucina Softic | HR (University of Zagreb): From good strategy to successful implementation of e-learning - view from an E-learning Centre
Maria Stenalt | DK (Aarhus University): Becoming a lawyer demands hard work from students - Implementation of blended learning in an undergraduate law programme at Aarhus University

Susanna Niinistö-Sivuranta | FI: eCampus – Inspiring, flexible and available

Tobe Bayens; Noel Vercruysse | BE/FR: The use of open education and blended learning in professional higher education

16:00-16:15 Coffee and tea available
16:15-17:00 Break-out sessions to develop conclusions/key messages
17:00-18:00 Discussion of conclusions/key messages in plenary and close

The Maltese Presidency Conference on digital education will take place 19-20 January at the same venue. All PLA participants are invited to attend the conference.